

ABSTRACT

The Role of Sang Timur Sumenep Catholic Elementary School Teachers in Implementing the Character of Interfaith Tolerance

Keywords: Character, Religious Tolerance, Teacher's Role

Character education is an important education in the modern era. One of the characters developed in education is tolerance. Tolerance includes many things, one of which is religion. One of the characters developed in education is tolerance. Tolerance includes many things, one of which is about religion. Religious tolerance has an important role in social life because every Indonesian citizen embraces and believes in a religion. This study aims to describe (1) the role of SDK Sang Timur teachers in implementing the character of inter-religious tolerance and (2) the obstacles faced by teachers in implementing the character of tolerance between religions in SDK Sang Timur. This research uses a type of qualitative research using descriptive methods. Researchers are instruments of research with data collection techniques through interviews, observation and documentation. Data analysis was carried out on data obtained by reducing unnecessary data, presenting data and verifying, namely drawing conclusions. students So that students do not deviate and respect each other among fellow believers.