

ABSTRACT

Implementation of the Pancasila plaque profile in extracurricular local wisdom in SDN Kebundadap Timur 1 Sumenep District: 2023. Ahmad Sucipto.

The purpose of this study was to find out how the implementation and implementation of extracurricular local wisdom kerawitan at SDN Kebundadap Timur 1. This study used a descriptive qualitative approach, with data collection methods using observation, interviews and documentation, informants of this research include principals, class teachers, trainer teachers. The content in this study is in the form of a narrative.

This research method according to its type is Descriptive Qualitative. This research method uses Qualitative descriptive research methods, data collection techniques using passive open observation, interviews and documentation. Data analysis techniques carried out in this study are data reduction by means of abstraction, data display in the form of brief descriptions and conclusion drawing (verification) followed by data triangulation.

The results of this study Implementation of the profile of the pancasila plaque in the extracurricular of local wisdom in SDN Kebundadap Timur I. School principals, teachers and trainer teachers planted the profile of Pancasila students with 3 departments, namely as follows: 1) Global diversity which includes several elements, namely knowing and respecting culture, intercultural communication skills in interacting with others, reflection and responsibility for diversity experiences. 2) Working together to cover several elements, namely collaboration, caring, sharing. 3) Independence includes several elements, namely awareness of self and the situation at hand, and regulation.

Keywords: Extracurricular kerawitan, Pancasila Student Profile