Civics Teacher Strategy in Developing the Ability to Express Students' Opinions Integrated in the Problem Based Learning Model Human Rights Material Class XI MA Khoiruddin Moncek Tengah

Keywords : Teacher Strategy, Developing Students' Ability to Express Opinions, Problem Based Learning.

The aim of this research is to find out the strategies of PPKn teachers in developing the ability to express students' opinions integrated in the Problem Based Learning learning model on human rights class XI MA Khoiruddin Moncek Tengah.

The type of research used is descriptive research with a qualitative approach and the data sources obtained are primary and secondary data, the data collection used is observation, interview and documentation techniques.

Based on the research results, the learning carried out at MA Khoiruddin Moncek Tengah using only the lecture method turned out to be less effective for students. As a result, students are less active in expressing their opinions both in class and outside of class, the use of appropriate learning methods is very necessary in the learning process, because each student has different abilities. Therefore, learning methods are really needed, educators here use Problem Based Learning to develop students' ability to express opinions.
