

ABSTRACT

This study aims to determine; (1) Madurese adjectival clauses in the Babad Songennep book; (2) Madurese language numeralia clauses in the Babad Songennep book; (3) Madurese prepositional clauses in the book Babad Songennep.

This research uses Ramlan's syntactic theoretical approach with qualitative descriptive methods. Written data used in this research uses Madurese in the form of nonverbal Madurese language clauses contained in the book 'Babad Songennep' by R. Werdisastra. Providing data in this research uses the listening method with basic techniques in the form of reading or tapping techniques to read or tap the writing in the form of Madurese language clauses in the book 'Babad Songennep'. An advanced technique in the form of note-taking technique is to note down the non-verbal clauses contained in the book "Babad Songennep" by R. Werdisastra. Next, the Madurese nonverbal clauses in the book "Babad Songennep" were analyzed using the agih method with the basic technique of Direct Elements (BUL).

The findings from the research investigation entitled "Nonverbal Clauses in Madurese in the Babad Songennep Book by R. Werdisastra" can be classified into the following sections: (1) Adjectival clauses in Madurese with 7 data clauses; (2) Madurese language numeralia clauses with 5 data clauses; and (3) Madurese language prepositional clauses totaling 6 data clauses.
