

ABSTRACT

Social discrimination in the novel Eleven Patriots by Andrea Hirata

2025, Sofiana Oktavia Sari

Keywords: Social Discrimination, Sociological Literature, Eleven Patriots, Andrea Hirata's

This research aims to describe the main problem in this research, namely how social discrimination is in the novel Eleven Patriots by Andrea Hirata. This research aims to provide an overview of social discrimination in the novel Eleven Patriots by Andrea Hirata.

This research uses a descriptive qualitative method using a literary sociology approach and uses reading and note-taking techniques. The reading and note-taking technique is a technique used by reading written text, then recording the data to be analyzed according to the problem formulation.

Based on the results of this research obtained from the novel eleven patriots by Andrea Hirata, it consists of racial discrimination and age discrimination, racial discrimination refers to acts of exclusion, limiting, or selection based on race and ethnicity. These actions have the potential to cause a reduction in Human Rights (HAM) and basic freedoms in various fields such as civil, economic, cultural, political and sports. Meanwhile, age discrimination is unfair or different treatment of someone based on their age. This discrimination can occur in various age groups, including children, teenagers, young adults, and parents (elderly). In age discrimination, someone is treated unequally or is not given the same opportunities because their age is deemed not to match certain standards or norms.