

Abstract

Zarkazi, Imam, 2024. "The Concept of Wujudiah in the Poem 'Our God is so close' The work of Abdul Hadi W.M." Final assignment, Indonesian Language and Literature Education Study Program, STKIP PGRI Sumenep. Supervisors: (1) Abd Azis, M.Ed, (2) Ahmad Yasid, M.Ed.

Keywords: The concept of wujudiah, Poetry: "Our God is so close"

This research attempts to examine the concept of wujudiah contained in the poem "Our God is so close" by Abdul Hadi W.M. Related to this, the formulation of the problem in this research is: 1) What is the concept of Wujudiah in the poem "Our God is so close" by Abdul Hadi W.M? To overcome the problems above, several theories are used which are considered relevant to solve the problems raised. These theories include, among others, Sufism, wujudiah, linguistic style.

The trend aimed at by this thesis is related to the concept of wujudiah contained in Abdul Hadi W.M's poem entitled "Our God is so close". The method used in this research is a qualitative research method, with data sources in the form of textual documents, and using data analysis in the form of descriptive data analysis. The data taken in this research is a type of textual document data.

The findings from the results of this research are in the form of the concept of wujudiah with various conceptual forms within it, namely, the concept of unity (tanzih), the concept of diversity (tasybih), and the concept of insan kamil (complete human being).