

Abstract

In essence, the task is to prepare a generation of the nation's children to be able to live life as well as possible in the future, and those in elementary school are a universal aspect that always and must exist in human life. By learning the inquiry method which is an alternative to a new learning model that can be used to answer the various problems of elementary school teachers in Batuputih daya I elementary schools that learning can improve if student learning is done well and continuously.

From the results of this study, it can be concluded that the inquiry method is very suitable for current conditions, but there may be some student who are less active, but the inquiry learning applied at batuputih daya I state elementary school is in accordance with what has become reality to student, so that student are able to receive the subject matter as well as possible. as for the inhibiting factors, among others, are their nature, which results in an increase in student learning achievement which is slow in the sense that they are not smart, so that children will miss their lessons wrong in educating their children in the family factor, among others, are their nature, which results in an increase in student learning achievement which is slow in the sense that children will miss their lessons wrong in educating their children in the family and society.

Keywords: role, inquiry method, Indonesian.