

ABSTRAC

Nurul Jannah. 2022. NPM: 17882011A225571. Supervisor I: Siti Arifah, M. Pd, Supervisor II: Zainul Wahid, M. Si. Conversational Presupposition Analysis of STKIP PGRI Sumenep Students (Pragmatic Perspective). Indonesian Language and Literature Education Study Program. Indonesian Teachers Association (STKIP PGRI) Sumenep College of Teacher Training and Education.

Keywords: Inductive, Deductive, and Sukarno's Words

This research is an analytical research. Then the formulation of the problems needed for this research are, 1. How is Inductive Analysis in the book " Words of Sukarno by Aristo Farela's work?, 2. How is Deductive Analysis in the book " Words of Sukarno by Aristo Farela?. Based on the formulation of the problem, this study aims to analyze and then conclude inductively and deductively the book entitled " Words of Sukarno by Aristo Farela.

This study analyzes the inference in the book of words of Sukarno by Aristo Farela, with the research title "Analysis of Inference in the Book of Words of Sukarno by Aristo Farela". The purpose of this study is to describe the analysis of inductive inference and deductive inference. While the data analysis in this study used descriptive analysis, which describes the research data as it is. The theoretical approach used is from the Wijana Theory. The method used in this study is the listening method with data collection techniques using library and note-taking techniques

Inductive inference is an inference based on probability starting from specific information to conclude more general principles. Then, deductive inference is a series of conclusions based on logical certainty. It usually starts with a general principle and then concludes something about a particular case study. The data collection technique, namely the note-taking technique, can be carried out directly on the book under study, namely the book about Sukarno's Words for Indonesia by Aristo Farela. namely by reading, analyzing, and determining the types of inference.

The results of the data studied are in the form of words conveyed by Sukarno about his struggle to liberate the nation. The goal is for the nation's future youth to understand the words conveyed by Sukarno.

This study intends to provide an understanding of the reader in understanding the content and intent of Inductive Inference and Deductive Inference, so that there is no misunderstanding of what is conveyed.

