

ABSTRACT

Analisis Eksistensi dan Kepribadian Tokoh Utama Dalam Novel Sunrise For Shaila Karya Erie Khasandra Kajian Psikologi.. 2022. Rahmawati

Keywords: Existence, Personality, literary psychology

The study of psychology in literature is the study of psychology that enters into a person's character, one of the characteristics in literature has its own character and sastra works have its own characteristics, psychology in literature will have a very good impact on the reader, one of which can smooth the soul while the literary spirit will be the capital in the study of literature in depth.

The issues raised in the novel sunrise for shaila are two issues, including the existence of the main character in the novel sunrise for shaila, and the personality of the main character in the novel sunrise for shaila. Thus, with research on psychological studies, researchers are required to find the existence and personality of a woman.

In this research method, it is explained about matters related to data analysis, namely approaches and types of data research, research data sources, data collection procedures, and data analysis techniques. While the methods used in this study are qualitative methods.

