

ABSTRACT

The Role of Nahdlatul Ulama And Muhammadiyah Social Organizations In Response To Radicalism In Sumenep

By:
Nur Muhammad
NPM: 16872051A001382

Keywords : Religious Radicalism, Nahdlatul Ulama And Muhammadiyah Social Organizations

Religious radicalism or violence in the name of religion has recently edged on public life in Indonesia with events ranging from requests to replace state systems to bombings and anarchists in various areas. Sumenep is a region in Indonesia with a majority of muslims that has the potential for being possessed by understanding down to the radical movement. The existence of Nahdlatul Ulama and Muhammadiyah social organization in sumenep had a strategic role in overcoming the radicalism, So researchers have the initiative to do research to find the significance of the organization's movement in doing movement, So that general society can access the organizational role problems and increase the role of society participation.

The research is field research using qualitative research methods with a phenomenological approaches, with primary and secondary data sources and using observational data collection procedures, interviews and documentaries. This research is located in Sumenep Regency.

The results of research are the Nahdlatul Ulama and Muhammadiyah social organization movement with their ideological basis and preaching methods have significant role in the fight against radicalism movements, so that general people can be kept from this movements, as well as intensive structural and cultural forces escort social life.