

Abstract

This study examines the forms of love in a collection of short stories Story for the Lovers by Agus Noor. A collection of short stories an expression of feelings with a variety of expressions, the phrase which then becomes interesting and beautiful with a circle of language that is beautifully packaged into a unity with an interesting plot as well. Short story "Story for Lovers" tells a love with a different path, about a meeting, and loss. Happiness and sorrow, while researchers are interested in researching with two formulations of the problem. So that becomes the problem formulation specifically, the first is How is the Exotic Love Mode in a Collection of Short Stories for The Lovers of Agus Noor's Work. While the formulation of the second problem is how the forms of love contained in the Collection of Short Stories for The Lovers of Agus Noor's Work. The theory used in this study is the Psychology of personality, Exoticism and Love, which examines the form of Love and describes the beauty of the language

This type of research used in this research is descriptive qualitative research because this research is in the form of descriptive and the approach used is more to the forms of love and exotic fashion. Data collection procedures are carried out with a number of techniques by reading, recording texts, and recording data.

From the results of research conducted by researchers shows that in the collection of short stories for the lovers there is an Exotic Love. Which is packed with a sphere of language in the form of a woman and manga juice, stories on Valentine's Day, nyoya fallasia, fireflies in the Jakarta sky, and also women who ride with dew.

