

ABSTRACT

Optimization The Teachers' Role to Increased of Students' Learning Activities at Fourth Grade in Elementary School Totosan III Batang-Batang Sumenep 2018/2019

Keywords: Optimazation, Teachers' Role and Students' Learning Activities

This research to purposed for : 1) The relization of the teachers' role and teachers' effort at fourth grade in the learning process in elementary school Totosan III ; 2) Finding the problem that obstruct teachers's role at fourth grade in the learning process in elementary school Totosan III.

This reseach used qualitative approach that revealed of something found with description as comprehensive based on the data that obtained in the field. Research method used in data collection techniques are observation, interviews, and documentation. In this case reseacher organized, regulated, agglomerate, and it's categoried analyzed data based on the reduction data, display data and verification data. While for checking of validating data used triangulation. From the result of reseach analysis data described that teachers' role to increased of students' learning activities at fourth grade in elementary school has executed his role as teacher. But in implementation was not optimal, there was obstacles. One of them was infrastructure (media) was not completed, the difficulties understanding of learning device etc. Talking about teachers' role, there are several role that must be performed of the teacher namely teacher as a lecture or demonstrator, teacher as a adviser, teacher as a manager class, teacher as a mediator and facilitator, and teacher as evaluator