

ABSTRACT

Persamaan Makna Leksikal dan Bentuk kata Bahasa Madura dalam Pitutur
Masyarakat desa Pinggir Papas dan desa Kebundadap

Keywords: lexical meaning, word formation, and pitutur

The study aims to describe the similarities of lexical meanings and forms of the Madurese language words in the community of Pinggir Papas and Kebundadap villages, Examine meaning and form because of the importance of understanding the concept of lexical meaning and tenses

The study used a qualitative descriptive study in everyday speech used by the people of Pinggir Papas and Desa Kebundadap, which were in the form of lexical meanings and the forms of words affixation suffixation. The sources in this study are the utterances used daily by the people of Pinggir Papas and Kebundadap villages, in this study using the technique of observing, recording, and taking notes, data reduction, data presentation and drawing conclusions.

The results of this study indicate the process of the similarity of meaning and form of words. The first word contains two different words and the same meaning. while the word form, the first word has the prefix –a and the second word has the suffix –an.