

ABSTRACT

CHARACTERISTICS OF USE OF MADURA LANGUAGE CLASS 5 STUDENTS IN SDN TENUNAN 1

Keywords: Characteristics, Madurese Speech Level

This study aims to describe the characteristics of the use of Madura language in class 5 students in the form of a discussion about the level of language spoken by students. This study uses a qualitative approach by presenting descriptive data obtained from the data obtained. Data collection methods in this study used interview, observation and documentation techniques. Researchers organize the analysis of data obtained through data reduction, data presentation and verification and conclusions. As for the research results obtained some discussion that is the characteristics of the use of Madurese language levels that are often used by 5 grade students of SDN Tenunan 1 is the language at the lower level or standard that is enjâ'-iyâ language while in the use of engghi-enten language and ghngghi-bhunten is rarely used it is influenced by several factors that are very closely related and affect the choice of speech level of language used by students. These factors include habitual factors, environmental factors, age factors, familiarity factors and position factors where these factors are very closely related to the choice of language level used by students.

