

ABSTRACT

Analysis of Teacher Attitudes resolve Students' noise in The Study Class At SDN Kalianget Timur II Kalianget Sub district in The Academic Year 2019/2020

Word key : teacher's attitude in solving class problems.

This study aims to study the teacher's actions to resolve student noise in the studio class at SDN Kalianget Timur II Kalianget District 2019/2020 Academic Year. This study uses a qualitative approach to the type of descriptive research. Data collection methods in this study used passive participation observation techniques, structured interviews, documentaion. In this case researchers reduce data, make data presentations, make conclusions. The results showed that to improve teacher actions in solving class problems in grade I and IV students in the Kalianget Timur II elementary school. Actions taken by the teacher to correct class problems in grade I and IV students in Kalianget Timur II elementary school. That is, first, advising and reminding students if the student is making noise in class, second, approaching students when students are passive and not conducive when learning, third, moving students' seats to other seats even close to the teacher, fourth doing personal communication, fifth, reprimanding student with a rather loud and loud voice, and sixth, reading books outside the classroom.

