

Abstract

FEMINISM ANALYSIS OF MADURA WOMEN IN THE NOVEL MARLENA BY SYAF ANTON WR

Keywords: Feminism, Madurese Women, Novel

Feminism is a women's movement to equalize the position of a woman's identity with that of a man. The women's movement to have autonomy or freedom for themselves is caused because women feel they are oppressed, both in terms of social, cultural and legal order. Women demand social justice to gain power and freedom. Feminism has a first wave, a second wave which gave birth to several schools and theories, and also a third wave to date. The birth of feminism in Indonesia and even in Madura is how feminism views Madurese women against theories that have appeared before.

This study uses a moderate feminism approach, which aims to find out Madurese women from a feminist perspective, because the nature of a man and a woman, although different, must be made equal, their rights as true human identity. The real opportunity and treatment is when a person is given the position and capacity of his ability.

The results of this study provide a view that women in Madura have their own perspective, how to judge women as having true beauty, namely "beautiful heart, beautiful behavior". woman. So that beauty for Madurese women is a good attitude and behavior to be an example to women in general.

