

ABSTRACT

The meaning of metaphor in the "political news" rubric of Kompas daily edition 4-18 June 2021. Junaida

This study aims to describe the meaning of metaphors, especially in the "political news" rubric of Kompas daily edition 4-18 June 2021, for that includes: (1) the types of metaphors contained in the "political news" rubric of Kompas daily edition 4-18 June 2021 (2) the meaning of the metaphor contained in the "political news" rubric of Kompas daily edition 4-18 June 2021.

This research is a qualitative research carried out with a descriptive approach and the subject of this research is the language used in political news. The object of this research is the types of metaphors and the meaning of the metaphors used in the Kompas daily political news rubric edition 4-18 June 2021. Data obtained by orientation, selection and identification techniques (read and record) after identifying the data in scan shoot.

The results of this study are as follows, first, the types of metaphors in the "political news" rubric of Kompas daily edition 4-18 June 2021 in the form of (1)abtropomorphic metaphors, (2) animal metaphors (3) cinematic metaphors. This research consists of government, policy and party. The second, in the meaning of metaphor, it was found that there were three kinds of metaphorical meanings, while the first one was using (1) nominative metaphors (2) metaphorical meanings predicative (3)) metaphorical meanings complementary.

Key words: metaphor, political news, Kompas daily